 Deputy Clerk, United States District Court
PRO HAC VICE (for this one particular occasion)

An attorney who is not a member of the California State Bar, but who is a member in good standing of, and eligible to practice before, the bar of any United States Court or of the highest court of any State or of any Territory or Insular possession of the United States, who is of good moral character, and who has been retained to appear in this Court, may upon written application and in the discretion of the Court, be permitted to appear and participate in a particular case. An attorney is not eligible to practice pursuant to this paragraph if the attorney (1) resides in California, (2) is regularly employed in California, or (3) is regularly engaged in business, professional, or other activities in California.

The pro hac vice application shall be presented to the Clerk and shall state under penalty of perjury (1) the attorney's residence, office address, and State Bar Membership Number; (2) by what court the attorney has been admitted to practice and the date of admission; (3) that the attorney is in good standing and eligible to practice in said court; (4) that the attorney is not currently suspended or disbarred in any other court; and (5) if concurrently or within the year preceding this current application the attorney made any pro hac vice application to this Court, the title and the number of each matter wherein application was made, the date of application, and whether or not the application was granted. The attorney shall also designate in the application a member of the bar of this Court with whom the Court and opposing counsel may readily communicate regarding the conduct of the case and upon whom papers shall be served. The attorney shall file with such application the address, telephone number, and written consent of each designee.

Fee: $206.00 Library fee, payable to Clerk, United States District Court
